If the

Ethics Committee finds that the complaint is unfounded, they may dismiss the complaint and notify the Complainant(s) in writing.

- c) If the Ethics Committee finds enough evidence during the preliminary investigation to suggest that a complaint may be substantiated, a hearing will be convened. The Ethics Committee shall give both the Respondent and the Complainant(s) a reasonable opportunity to be heard and address each other.
 - (1) Notice shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to both the Respondent and Complainant(s) for the purpose of setting up a formal hearing.
 - (2) The Respondent shall receive a copy of the written complaint. He/she is entitled to see the document in its entire form. The Respondent will be given thirty (30) days from receipt of the hearing request to advise the Ethics Committee of his/her intention to provide a written or oral defense against the charges.
 - (3) After receipt of the return notice (by certified mail, return receipt requested) a formal hearing date will be mutually agreed to by both parties and the Ethics Committee. This date will be at least ninety (90) days from said receipt of official notice in order to give both parties adequate time to prepare for the hearing. If agreeable to both parties, the hearing shall be held at or about the time of the annual meeting of the ABFA in order to keep costs to a minimum. If one or both parties request a hearing date at a time other than the annual meeting, the costs of said hearing shall be the responsibility of the party/parties requesting the hearing and not the ABFA.
 - (4) At this hearing no legal counsel for either the Respondent or Complainant may be present. The attorney member of the ABFA, as a non-voting member of the Ethics Committee, will be present for the purpose of assuring that propriety, protocol, and adherence to proper procedures is maintained during the hearing. The attorney member of the ABFA shall act in an advisory position to the committee only and shall not be involved in the presentation of the case for either party. The ABFA will assume the cost of the attorney's travel, lodging, and a per diem amount equivalent to that set by the General Services Administration (GSA).
 - (5) The Ethics Committee shall make a report, which will include a recommendation to the ABFA Board of Directors at the conclusion of the hearing(s). Recommendations are to be limited to the following forms of discipline:
 - (a) Written Reprimand: The reprimand is to help a Diplomat correct improper actions that would have serious consequences if allowed to continue.
 - (b) Suspension: Suspension is the removal of a Diplomat's association with the Board and his/her certification status for one year from the date of the notification.
 - (c) Decertification: This is used to remove a Diplomat's certification. This action is appropriate in situations where it is not reasonable to expect that the Diplomat will be able to correct the problem (s) or when a Diplomat would severely damage the reputation of the ABFA if he/she were associated with the ABFA.
- d) Upon a vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the members of the Board of Directors present and voting, the Respondent may be issued a written reprimand, suspended, or decertified. No Board of Director member or member of the Ethics Committee who has a conflict of interest shall sit in deliberation on any manner concerning ethics. The Respondent will be notified within ten (10) days of the vote by the ABFA BOD.
- e) The Respondent has the right to appeal the action of the Board of Directors to the Diplomates of the ABFA. In effecting an appeal, the appellant must file a brief typewritten notice of the appeal, together with any typewritten statement he/she may wish to submit in his/her behalf, with the ABFA Secretary not more than thirty (30) days after receiving notice of the action of the Board. Punitive actions of the Board against the Respondent shall not commence until after thirty (30) days from the date of notification of the accused to allow time for the appeal. The Secretary shall immediately advise each member of the Board of Directors of the appeal and shall forward to each a copy of the supporting papers submitted by the appellant. If no appeal is received by the Secretary within thirty (30) days, the actions of the Board shall be implemented and may no longer be appealed.

- f) If an appeal is received within thirty (30) days, the Executive Committee shall prepare a written statement of the reasons for the Board of Directors' actions and file the same with the ABFA Secretary not more than thirty (30) days from receipt of the appeal.
- g) Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the statement from the Executive Committee, the Board of Directors shall choose three (3) Diplomates-at-Large (not on the Board of Directors), and the appellant shall choose four (4) Diplomates-at-Large (not on the Board of Directors) to hear the appeal.
- h) The Secretary of the Board shall send the statements from the appellant and the Executive Committee to each of the members of this Appeal Committee within fourteen (14) days after the Board is convened.
- i) The members of this Appeal Committee shall arrange a closed meeting either in person or by conference call(s). The meeting(s) shall be strictly confidential. Neither the Respondent nor the Complainant(s) or any member of the Board of Directors shall be part of the meeting. The non-voting attorney member of the ABFA shall be part of the meeting(s) to assure propriety, protocol, and adherence to procedures. The attorney shall not represent either party involved in the hearing. The ABFA will assume the costs associated with the involvement of the non-voting attorney member of the ABFA.
- j) Decisions of the Diplomates in the closed hearing will be based upon the written information provided by the appellant and the Ethics Committee convened to oversee the appeal. A written vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the Appeal Committee present and voting at the closed meeting shall be required to overrule the action of the Board of Directors in regard to issuing a written reprimand, suspension, or decertification of a Diplomat.
- k) The Board will not refund any annual dues for the current year, in whole or in part. A Diplomat who has been suspended but reinstated after a successful appeal can resume active status without reapplying for certification. He/she must, however, express an interest to resume active status in writing to the President of the Board.

SECTION VI: REQUEST FOR REINSTATEMENT: A Diplomat who has been decertified may reapply for certification after 5 years from the date of decertification. The individual is subject to the same application requirements as any other applicant, including taking the certifying examination. The individual must provide a detailed description of the circumstances of decertification along with any applicable remedies that have been undertaken by the individual since the decertification took effect.

SECTION VII - CONFIDENTIALITY, RULES, AND PROCEDURES

- (a) Any member of the Ethics Committee, Board of Directors, or Appeals Committee divulging information on matters previously considered or being considered could be in violation of the Code of Ethics and Conduct and is subject to charges of same being filed. This does not apply to written statements made and worded by the Board of Directors concerning ethical matters or about the case(s) being considered which may be distributed to the Appeals Committee by said person after Executive Committee approval.

- (b) The Ethics Committee shall formulate internal Rules and Procedures, and from time to time propose changes to such Rules and Procedures, designed to facilitate the expeditious, fair, discreet, and impartial handling of all complaints or matters brought before the Ethics Committee. The Rules and Procedures, and any subsequent deletions, additions, or amendments thereto, shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

Unless otherwise provided herein, the President of the Board, with the advice of the Board of Directors, shall appoint the chairperson and other members of each Standing or Special Committee.

The chairperson and other members of every Standing or Special Committee shall serve one (1) year terms and, unless otherwise provided within the Bylaws or resolved by the Board of Directors, are eligible for reappointment. At the end of the term, committee participation will cease unless asked by the President to remain on a specific committee for the sake of continuity or expertise.

The Executive Committee shall have full authority and power to act for and on behalf of the Board of Directors between meetings of said Board, except as provided in the Bylaws. Actions taken by the Executive Committee on behalf of the Board of Directors shall be reported to the Board of Directors as soon as practicable.
- 2) Ethics Committee: This committee shall consist of at least two (2) members of the Board of Directors and at least one (1) member from the Diplomates-at-Large. The Ethics Committee will investigate allegations against Diplomates for violations of Rules of Ethics and Conduct and will recommend action to the Board of Directors consistent with the procedures, standards, rules, and regulations established by the Board.

- 3) Examination Committees: The Vice President shall oversee the Examination Committees and the development, validation, execution, proctoring and grading of the certification examination, as well as notifying examinees about exam results. The Vice President has the responsibility of updating the multiple choice question database with newly submitted questions. The Vice President is also responsible for submitting written questions to the Test Validation Committee and updating the database appropriately with the questions that have been validated or rejected by the Test Validation Committee. The Vice President compiles the written exam questions from the validated questions in the database. The Vice President also writes the practical exam and prepares the materials for validation at the exam site prior to administration of the exam. The Vice President can contact the Diplomates-at-Large to request both written questions and materials for the practical exam. Subcommittees associated with the certification examination include:

- a) Test Validation Committee: The Test Validation Committee consists of a Chair (appointed by the ABFA Vice President) and at least three other members chosen from the Board of Directors and the ABFA Diplomates-at-Large. The committee shall be established during the annual Board of Directors meeting and committee members shall serve a minimum of one year. The purpose of the Test Validation Committee is to review the multiple choice and practical components of the ABFA certification exam to ensure that the questions are clear, concise, and appropriate.

- (1) For the written component of the exam, all multiple choice questions obtained by the Vice President shall be reviewed by the Test Validation Committee prior to their first intended use in the exam. Each Test Validation Committee member shall assess independently whether a question is acceptable as is, needs to be revised for clarity or accuracy, or should be discarded, and determine whether the proposed correct answer is appropriate.
- (2) The Test Validation Committee Chair shall collate the comments provided by the committee members and identify questions that are suitable for the exam, providing direction on any that require revision. A final report shall be submitted to the Vice President, who is bound by the decisions of the Test Validation Committee.
- (3) The Vice President shall then store each validated question in a master test bank, and each question shall be marked with its validation date. Each validated question shall be revalidated at least every 5 years for accuracy and relevance. The Vice President shall construct the written exam by drawing only from validated questions in the master test bank. The Vice President will maintain a database to include the number of missed answers for each question so that the Validation Committee can use these data to assess the reliability and validity of the questions during cyclical revalidation.
- (4) For the practical component of the exam, each Test Validation Committee member shall complete independently the practical exam at least one day prior to its implementation, preferably in the exam room using the instruments that will be provided to the examinees. Afterwards, the committee shall compare each answer to the answer key proposed by the Vice President, and the appropriateness of the test materials and the proposed answers shall be assessed. Then, in consultation with the Vice President, the Test Validation Committee provides guidance on the grading rubric that the Grading Committee will use in grading the practical exam and modifies the answer key or practical stations as it deems necessary. A majority vote by the Test Validation Committee members present shall constitute sufficient authority to remove any item or station from the exam in its entirety.

(5) Members of the Test Validation Committee shall not serve on the Grading Committee. Members of the Test Validation Committee shall not serve on the Exam Appeal Committee related to the exam; however, they can be consulted whenever the Exam Appeal Committee finds it necessary to assess the validity, appropriateness, or veracity of any written or practical exam questions.

b) Grading Committee: The Grading Committee is composed of members of the Board of Director and Diplomates-at-Large. The size of the committee depends on the number of examinees, and the members are appointed by the Vice President. (1) The Grading Committee members cannot be members of any of the other exam-related committees.

(2) The Vice President is present during the grading of the practical to answer questions but does not grade exams.

 - d. Payment of the non-refundable application fee must be made via an electronic invoice sent to each applicant by the ABFA Treasurer.
 - i. Applicants who do not pay the application fee in full prior to April 1 must defer their application until the following year.
- 3) The Application Chair will advise each applicant of the Board's decision by October 1 in the year that the application is received.
 - 4) The Board of Directors, at its discretion, may request additional information from the applicants or referees.
 - 5) The original applications and copies of any denial letters sent to unsuccessful applicants will be retained indefinitely. All associated materials such as the curriculum vitae, copy of the doctoral diploma, case reports, and letters of recommendation will be destroyed after three (3) years.
 - 6) Information in the application will remain strictly confidential. All Directors will destroy their paper copies or/delete electronic versions of the application materials within thirty (30) days after the vote to accept or reject an applicant.

Application Format:

- 1) The application packet should include three case reports that were submitted to a medical examiner, coroner, law enforcement agency or other government agency. Information that could identify the author of the report (including logos, mention of the jurisdiction where the work was completed, case numbers/identifiers, names, signatures, initials, and any other information that might identify the applicant) must be redacted from the case reports and supporting materials. The ABFA Board of Directors will consider the redacted files for the purposes of maintaining objectivity in the review process. All submitted case-related materials should be redacted including the case report, the cover letter, the photographs, the diagrams and the bench notes. Any questions about the information to be redacted should be directed to the Application Committee Chair.

- a. Mock cases may be submitted as long as the applicant provides detailed information regarding the provenience of the case and affirms that he/she had no prior knowledge of the case. Please see the Guidelines for Case File Submission.
- 2) The applicant should be the single author for the case reports submitted for evaluation; however, the ABFA Board of Directors recognizes that in some instances multiple anthropologists may contribute to a final report. In such cases submit a separate statement indicating that the applicant was the primary author. When submitting a multiple-authored report, the specific role of the applicant must be clearly explained.
- 3) Supporting materials (redacted) must be included and should contain information that will allow the Board of Directors to ascertain whether appropriate methods were used to justify the conclusions reached by the author. Refer to the Guidelines for Case File Submission.
- 4) Assign a number (#1, #2, #3) to each case report and supporting materials and write that case number as well as the randomly assigned identifier provided by the Application Committee Chair on each page of every case report and supporting materials before scanning it for the Board. This avoids complex numbering systems and facilitates discussion of each case by the Board of Directors. (NOTE: All non-case-related materials in the application, including the application, diploma, training/competency logs, and CV, must include the applicant's name. Applicants should NOT include their random identifier on these documents, as the Board of Directors reviews these two portions of the application separately.)

ABFA Guidelines for Case File Submission:

Case file submission will demonstrate the applicant's involvement in forensic activities and his or her preparation to sit for the ABFA Board Certification Examination.

Submission requirements include electronic redacted copies of the following:

- 1) The written case report as it was issued by the applicant to their agency.
- 2) Submitted reports that reflect work done solely (or primarily) by the applicant.
- 3) A cover letter for each case file. Briefly outline case details, and also use this document to explain when the actual report varies from the ABFA guidelines. Explain circumstances such as co-signed reports or the absence of chain of custody information, scene and investigative information, and/or forensic analyses.
- 4) Bench notes for each case submitted.
- 5) Photographs for each case submitted. All photographs should be of good quality and should be labeled and/or captioned.
- 6) Printouts from software and statistical analyses (e.g., FORDISC), when applicable, demonstrating appropriate use of the program/method and interpretation of results should be submitted.

NOTE: All materials for a given case, including the cover letter, photos, bench notes, figures, printouts, chains of custody, and other supporting documents, must be submitted as a single .pdf file (i.e., one .pdf file for Case 1, one.pdf file for Case 2, etc.). Each applicant, therefore, should submit a total of three (3) .pdf files, each containing all information relative to a given case. Application-related files, such as the CV, diploma, and electronic copy of the application, may be submitted separately.

Overall:

- 1) The three (3) submitted case files will serve to demonstrate the applicant's overall skill level. They allow the ABFA to evaluate the applicant's abilities in the subspecialties within forensic anthropology as well as confirm their professional involvement in the discipline. Choose the cases carefully and take the time to prepare the application packet.
 - (a) Preferably, submit cases that contain nearly complete or complete skeletal/fleshed remains.
 - (b) As much as possible, submit three reports that contain the following analyses:
 - i) Age at death
 - ii) Sex
 - iii) Ancestry
 - iv) Stature
 - v) Time since death
 - vi) Perimortem trauma
 - vii) Antemortem conditions
 - viii) Postmortem/Taphonomic modifications
- 2) The written case report and supporting documentation are carefully scrutinized to ensure that the applicant is able to clearly, concisely and accurately relay the above information. The ABFA recognizes that case report formats differ according to jurisdictional requirements. The goal of the ABFA is to assess the applicant's ability across the spectrum of analyses utilized in forensic anthropology. Choose cases that include a full array of analysis. Do not submit more than one case dealing solely with trauma analysis (i.e., that does not include a biological profile, taphonomy or other components). The ABFA suggests particular attention to the following areas:
 - (a) Proper use of grammar and proofreading within the report. Choose past or present tense and be consistent. Keep all descriptions brief, direct and objective. Avoid non-specific language such as "tiny", "large" etc. Avoid jargon, slang, and vernacular or colloquial terms.
 - (b) Professionalism in the language of the report. The overall quality of the report should be commensurate with the level of education and experience attained.
 - (c) Citation of current and appropriate references. (Note: If the report format requirements preclude reference citations, note that in the cover letter and provide a supplementary document that lists the references utilized.)
 - (d) Descriptions of specific methods and observations. Statement of the methods used along with specific criteria should be either in the report or accompanying bench notes (e.g., pubic symphysis phase with a description of the relevant criteria and the reported mean or interval). Standards must be correctly applied and must be the most appropriate standards for the case.
 - (e) Organized, concise, clear, and factual reports. Ensure that the report is helpful (in the sense of providing clear, accurate, objective information) to the agency requesting it. For example, does it contain enough information regarding the biological profile to assist with identification? Is the trauma clearly interpreted rather than overly interpreted? Is the postmortem interval (PMI) estimate supportable?
 - (f) Co-signed reports. If the applicant works in a large agency or laboratory that has protocols for co-signing, this must be explained in the cover letter (e.g., an internal peer-review process in which the reviewer co-signs the final document, or a signature from a supervisor signifying an administrative review). Remember that submitted reports should reflect work done solely (or primarily) by the applicant.

- (g) Chain of custody. If not mentioned in the written report, include information regarding “chain of custody” and legal authority for the examination in the cover letter.
 - (h) Background/provenience information. If not mentioned in the written report, include information regarding the date of recovery of remains and investigative circumstances of the case in the cover letter.
- 3) Bench notes and photographs must be included in the application (information which could identify the applicant or institution should be redacted). Consider the following when reviewing bench notes and photographs for submitted cases:
- (a) Bench notes are to be solely authored by the applicant.
 - (b) Discrepancies between the bench notes and reports must be explained in the cover letter.
 - (c) Redact initials, logos, and other identifiers from photographs and bench notes.
 - (d) Diagrams, photographs and illustrations should be clear and readable and contain the case number used for submission. A legend clearly outlining the symbols used must accompany all diagrams, if applicable.
 - (e) Each case must be accompanied by photographs including at least one view of the complete set of remains from an anterior view.
 - (f) Photographs of the elements or features used to assess the biological profile, postmortem interval, postmortem modification, and trauma (e.g., close-up photographs of pubic symphysis face, sternal rib end, and auricular surface) should be submitted to assist the Board of Directors in assessing the applicant’s abilities. Photographs should clearly match the written descriptions. (Note: It is recognized that these photographs may not necessarily be part of the original report.)
 - (g) Photographs must be in focus and contain a clearly visible scale.
 - (h) All photographs must be labeled with descriptions.

Additional Elements for Case File Submission:

- 1) Skeletal Inventory: Complete a skeletal inventory listing all remains by element when possible (e.g., each rib is a separate element and should be sided and seriated when possible). Inventory can be listed as “all present” or “all absent” depending on the case and individual style. Reference only to a diagram or photograph is not an acceptable replacement.
- 2) Postmortem Interval: Contextual data and/or bone preservation data should be listed and the PMI, if estimated, must be supported by evidence and appropriate citations. The environment from which the remains were recovered should be clearly described. (Note: If the case was analyzed without knowledge of the field context, then this should be noted in the report or in the cover letter.)
- 3) Sex: When listing morphological traits, indicate their presentation (e.g., non-projecting mastoid processes). Supporting photographic evidence of each trait used in the analysis will help the Board of Directors assess the applicant’s abilities.
- 4) Ancestry:
 - (a) Statistical program (e.g., FORDISC) and current analytical methods must be used and interpreted appropriately. Associated statistical values must be documented in the case report or bench notes. Do not use a blanket statement such as “FORDISC indicates that this is a White individual.”
 - (b) Morphological traits listed as supporting a particular ancestry should be established through appropriate citations.
 - (c) Supporting photographic evidence of various views of the cranium or skull will help the Board of Directors assess the applicant’s abilities.

5) Age:

- (a) Criteria and skeletal elements used must be stated (e.g., right 4th rib sternal end with a deep V-shaped pit) and appropriate references should be cited. Submit supporting photographic evidence of each trait used in the analysis to help the Board of Directors assess the applicant's abilities.
- (b) Tests performed for age estimation should be the most probative available given the condition and completeness of remains.
- (c) Synthesis of the results from multiple tests should be clear and rational to the reader of the report.

6) Stature:

- (a) Conclusions should be solidly based on appropriate use of standards and references and appropriate interpretation of results.
- (b) In the absence of information regarding sex and ancestry, a justification for the stature model(s) selected should be provided.

7) Trauma:

- (a) Trauma documentation must include measurements, appropriate interpretation, and photographic documentation. All defects should have their location within the skeleton clearly described (such as using measurements from at least two anatomical landmarks). Supporting photographic evidence of each trait used in the analysis will help the Board of Directors assess the applicant's abilities.
- (b) The type of trauma should be stated, if appropriate (e.g., consistent with blunt force, sharp force, or projectile/GSW).
- (c) Trauma description should be succinct.
- (d) The method(s) of evaluation should be stated (e.g., radiographic, gross, microscopic).
- (e) Do not make statements regarding cause and manner of death.

8) Postmortem Modifications: Do not over-interpret results. Statements such as "postmortem modification is caused by carnivores or rodents" must be supported and use proper taphonomic terminology.

9) Conclusions:

- (a) Conclusions should summarize the overall findings in the report, be appropriate to the evidence presented, and be supported through careful documentation.
- (b) No conclusions should be drawn or analysis performed outside of the expertise of the analyst or the field of forensic anthropology.

Reapplication Procedure:

- 1) The decision of the Board of Directors to accept or reject an applicant is based on a majority vote and is final.
- 2) If denied, in order to reapply, the applicant must submit a new application packet and the application fee.
- 3) Reuse of any material(s) in a reapplication is allowed only through written permission by the Application Chair and only within a three year period.
- 4) In most circumstances, new letters of recommendation must be submitted. However, if the Application Chair receives a written request from the re-applicant, existing letters of recommendation may be reused at the discretion of the Application Chair.
- 5) New case reports for review will be required as part of the reapplication process. Exceptions may be granted if (a) the only criticism from the Board involved the lack of supporting documentation, and (b) the reapplication occurs in the year following the original denial.

- 6) If an applicant is denied a second time, he or she may not submit a third application for the following year. The applicant is encouraged to gain additional mentorship and training in the interim. After at least one full year has elapsed since notification of the second denial, the applicant will be allowed to submit a third application. If, after a total of three attempts, the applicant is still not approved to sit for the certification exam, he or she may not reapply without petitioning the ABFA Board of Directors for permission. In the petition the applicant must clearly demonstrate that they have taken substantive measures to rectify any deficiencies, including but not limited to additional formal training, coursework, and supervision and mentoring by a board-certified forensic anthropologist.

The Certification Examination in Forensic Anthropology

Revised 27 April 2017

Examination Committees:

The ABFA Examination Committees consist of the Vice President, Test Validation Committee, and the Grading Committee. The Examination Committees are charged with administering the examination, including creating, proctoring, and grading.

As a member of the Examination Committee, the role of Vice President is to create the examination and examination key, proctor the examination, communicate the location and time of the examination to all examinees, and respond to all examinee questions regarding the content or administration of the examination. The Vice President compiles the written exam questions from the validated questions in the database. The Vice President also writes the practical exam and prepares the materials for validation at the exam site prior to administration of the exam. The Test Validation Committee shall review the entire examination prior to its finalization.

Members of the Grading Committee will not be involved in creating or proctoring the exam. Also, they will not be involved in communications with the examinees prior to or following the exam. The only task assigned to the Grading Committee members is the grading of the examination. They will grade the examination following the established examination key.

All members of the Examination Committees will sign a Confidentiality Agreement prohibiting them from discussing the examination content, examinees or examination results outside the Examination Committees or ABFA Board of Directors.

The Certification Examination:

- 1) The ABFA examination consists of a multiple-choice test and a practical test. It is designed to test the examinee's breadth and depth of knowledge in the field of forensic anthropology. For the multiple-choice examination, the examinee must be familiar with the forensic anthropology literature. This literature includes, but is not limited to, pertinent forensic journals and texts that are applicable to the practicing forensic anthropologist. While the examinee must be well-versed in current literature, seminal works should not be ignored.
 - a. In general, the multiple-choice questions cover, but are not limited to, the following areas:
 - i. Methods to establish the biological profile
 - ii. Trauma interpretation and biomechanical principles
 - iii. Anatomy, bone growth and development, osteology and bone histology
 - iv. Pathological conditions
 - v. Postmortem alterations
 - vi. Individualizing skeletal characteristics
 - vii. Taphonomy and postmortem interval
 - viii. Scene processing
 - ix. Evidence handling, court procedures and legal concerns
 - x. History of forensic anthropology
 - xi. Identification
 - xii. Statistical analyses

- xiii. Human/nonhuman classification and medicolegal significance
 - xiv. Standards and guidelines related to the practice of forensic anthropology (e.g., SWGANTH and OSAC)
- b. The practical portion of the examination consists of hands-on stations. Each station will provide the necessary equipment, standards, and guidance to complete the station. Also, magnifying glasses and penlights are available to the examinees during the practical examination. Examinees should read each station's instructions carefully and be sure to address all components, but do only what each station asks.
- i. The examination will assess the examinee's ability to apply his or her specific body of knowledge and skills to actual skeletal and dental material and, in some instances, radiographs.
 - ii. The examinee will demonstrate critical reasoning abilities and appropriate methods and experience to reach an organized, substantive answer to each question.
 - iii. The stations will test the examinee's competence in areas such as the determination of age, ancestry, sex, and stature, craniometrics, dental development, dental charting, minimum number of individuals, trauma recognition and interpretation, pathological conditions (providing a differential diagnosis), human versus nonhuman, analytical programs (e.g., FORDISC), taphonomy and radiographic assessment. The test may involve these examples, but is not limited to them.
- 2) The exam is typically scheduled during the Monday of the week of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences Annual Meeting. The starting and ending times and the lunch schedule will be provided to the examinees by the Vice President prior to the examination.
 - 3) The examination will be administered in an area that provides an appropriate environment for the written and practical portions.
 - 4) An examinee must notify the Vice President of his/her intent to take the examination by December 1 of the calendar year that precedes the examination date.
 - 5) An examinee may choose to postpone the examination without reapplying or paying for the examination that year. The examinee must notify the Vice President of his/her intent to postpone by December 1 each and every year he/she chooses to postpone. After three years of consecutive postponements, the examinee must reapply. The examinee may also be required to reapply if he/she fails to notify the Vice President of his/her intent.
 - 6) The examination fee must be remitted by December 1 of the year prior to taking the exam. Payment must be made electronically through the ABFA website. If the examinee fails to remit the examination fee by the deadline, he or she will not be allowed to take the examination the following year.
 - 7) Examinees are not permitted to bring reference materials or analytical aids (such as hand lenses, calipers, or lights) to the examination. During the examination, examinees will have access to appropriate standards and other materials. A list of standards and materials is available from the Vice President upon request.

Grading:

- 1) To foster impartiality in grading, the names of the examinees will not be associated with their answers until all the exams are graded.

- 2) An 80% grade is required on each section of the examination (80% or higher on the practical and 80% or higher on the multiple choice) in order to obtain ABFA certification.
- 3) The Vice President will notify the examinees of examination results no later than March 31 of the year in which the exam is taken.

Re-examination:

- 1) If the examinee fails one or both section(s) of the examination, he or she may retake the failed section(s) a total of three times. The examination fee must be paid prior to each and every attempt.
- 2) The examinee must retake all failed sections of the examination during the following attempt.
- 3) The examinee may retake the examination the following year or may postpone for one year. The examinee must notify the Vice President of his or her intent to retake the examination or to postpone by December 1 of the calendar year prior to the exam. The examinee may be required to reapply if he or she fails to notify the Vice President of his or her intent.
- 4) Examinees wishing to retake failed sections of the examination beyond three attempts must petition the Board of Directors in writing for consideration. The petition letter must be submitted to the ABFA Secretary prior to September 1.

Special Accommodations:

- 1) In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008, the ABFA will provide reasonable accommodations for applicants with disabilities. Applicants should refer to these laws for more information regarding protected disabilities and applicable accommodations.
- 2) Documentation of an applicant's disability must be in writing and must be signed by a licensed or otherwise credentialed and appropriately qualified medical, psychological, or learning professional. Documentation should provide a specific diagnosis and description of the desired accommodation; it must also be dated and include the name, title, professional credentials, address, phone number, and signature of the person making the diagnosis and recommendation. The ABFA will protect such information in accordance with established law but reserves the right to verify the disability and to request additional information if necessary. Requests will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- 3) The disability documentation, description of the desired accommodation, and specific request for such accommodation must be provided to the ABFA Vice President no later than December 1 of the year prior to taking the exam. The ABFA Board of Directors will consider and approve or deny all requests for accommodation and will issue a decision within 60 calendar days of receipt of the request. The ABFA will strive to make accommodations at no cost to the applicant; however, applicants may be asked to bear some or all of the cost of accommodation and/or to make the necessary arrangements, depending on the specific service(s) or modification(s) requested.
- 4) The ABFA will make every effort to honor requests for testing accommodations. However, if requests for accommodation are incompletely documented or received after the deadline, the applicant may be asked to take the test without the requested accommodation or defer the examination to a later date. Furthermore, accommodation requests will not be granted if they present an undue burden on the ABFA, provide an advantage over other candidates, or alter the ABFA's ability to measure fundamental skills or knowledge that the examination is designed to test.

- 5) If a request for special accommodation is denied either in part or full, an applicant may appeal the decision. A letter describing the applicant's objection along with additional medical documentation (if appropriate) must be received by the Vice President within 60 calendar days after receipt of notification. A final decision will be made by the Board of Directors within 60 calendar days of receipt of the appeal.

Examination Appeal Process

The American Board of Forensic Anthropology is committed to ensuring that candidates for certification have access to an appeal concerning the certification examinations. If an examinee chooses to appeal the ABFA Examination Committee decision (i.e., due to failure of an examination), the examinee must appeal in writing and clearly delineate each area of contention.

1) Scope of Appeal

- (a) Appealable Issues: Candidates may appeal to the ABFA to raise concerns relative to the examination's administration (e.g., alleged bias/prejudice of a member of an examination committee or failure to follow established examination procedures) or to raise concerns of inappropriate conduct during the examination (e.g., use of unauthorized information or aids). Candidates may also request that examination grades be recalculated to confirm accuracy of the overall score.
- (b) Non-Appealable Issues: The ABFA validates all test questions. As such, the ABFA will not consider appeals based on examination content or the sufficiency or accuracy of answers given to examination questions.

2) Procedure for Appeal

- (a) In order to appeal the examination outcome, a candidate must set forth the basis for his/her appeal by submitting a letter via certified mail with return receipt requested to the ABFA President within thirty (30) days of the notification of a failed examination. Appeals postmarked after the thirty (30) day period will not be considered.
- (b) The appellant must select a Diplomate-at-Large to represent him/her throughout the appeal process. A Diplomate-at-Large is any ABFA Diplomate in good standing who is not currently serving on the Board of Directors. The name of the Diplomate-at-Large must be included in the appeal letter. If the appellant does not choose a representative from the Diplomates-at-Large, one will be appointed by the Chair of the Exam Appeal Committee.
- (c) Upon receipt of the letter, the President will promptly notify the ABFA Board of Directors of the appeal request.

3) Decision of Appeal

- (a) The Exam Appeal Committee will review the appellant's letter and make a decision about the validity of the claim(s) and the appropriate course of action. Discussions regarding the appeal by the committee will normally be handled via a conference call.
- (b) Decisions regarding the appeal will be determined by a majority vote of the Exam Appeal Committee.
- (c) The Exam Appeal Committee Chair will notify the ABFA President of the outcome. The ABFA President will review the Exam Appeal Committee's decision to ensure compliance with the ABFA's appeal policies and procedures and will notify the Board of - Directors of the outcome. After approval by the ABFA President, the Exam Appeal Committee Chair will also respond to the appellant in writing via a certified letter within ninety (90) days of the date of receipt of the appeal. The response to the appellant will address each point raised in the appeal.

- (d) The decisions of the Exam Appeal Committee are final and are not subject to further appeals.

Diplomate of the ABFA:

Successful completion of both portions of the examination will qualify the individual as a Diplomate of the American Board of Forensic Anthropology, and entitle him/her to use the initials D-ABFA after his/her name. Diplomates are issued a unique certificate number, issued in numerical order. Certificate numbers are never reused. New Diplomate names and contact information will be added to the ABFA website by September 1 following their qualification. Diplomate certificates will be awarded at the next annual ABFA meeting in February. If necessary, verification of Diplomate status prior to awarding of the certificate may be obtained from the ABFA President.

The President of the Board has the pleasure of presenting the Certificate of Qualification in Forensic Anthropology to successful examinees at the next annual meeting of the Diplomates.

A list of Diplomates (current, deceased, retired, suspended) is on the ABFA website.

Recertification Revised 27 April 2017

Recertification Process:

Certificates of Qualification issued by the ABFA remain valid for a period of three (3) years. In order to maintain certification beyond three years, Diplomates must:

- 1) Pay annual dues by January 1 each year.
- 2) Submit a signed Endorsement of Professional and Ethical Standards statement each year. This statement can be downloaded from the Policies and Procedures page of the ABFA website.
- 3) Participate in the recertification process overseen by the ABFA as a means of demonstrating continued education and maintenance of skills in forensic anthropology and related forensic sciences. Documentation of forensic activities (as outlined below) for the preceding three years is required.
- 4) Return the Application for Recertification to the Chairperson of the Recertification Committee of the ABFA by the appropriate deadline.

Recertification Procedures:

- 1) To maintain certification the Diplomate must submit all recertification documents by June 1 in the year of the third anniversary of the current Certificate of Qualification (i.e., sequenced in three-year increments from the date the Certificate was granted). For example, a Diplomate granted a Certificate in 2010 would submit recertification documents by June 1 in 2013, 2016, etc.
- 2) Failure to submit the Application for Recertification as outlined in these guidelines will result in the automatic lapse of the Certificate. After the Recertification Committee of the ABFA notifies the Diplomate of impending decertification, the Diplomate must furnish the Application for Recertification to that Committee within thirty (30) days. If notice of extenuating circumstances is received by the Board within fifteen (15) days of notice of impending decertification, the Recertification Committee, at its discretion, may grant an extension.
- 3) The Recertification Committee will determine recertification eligibility of registered Diplomates.
- 4) The committee's recommendations for recertification must be accepted or rejected by the Board of Directors. Eligibility for recertification will be based on the candidate's meaningful participation in forensic activities, timely payment of annual dues, and an annual reaffirmation of the ABFA Code of Ethics and Conduct. This policy for establishing eligibility places the primary responsibility on the candidate to adequately document his/her forensic activities.

Categories of Forensic Activity:

The documentation of the various areas of involvement required for recertification reflects the diverse activities that comprise the practice of forensic activity and its interaction with related forensic sciences.

All candidates for recertification must indicate a minimum of thirty (30) hours of continuing forensic anthropology education during the three years of their current certificate. The ABFA Recertification Committee must approve continuing education activities not specifically listed for credit in the Categories of Continuing Education below. The Diplomate will document current involvement in one or more of the following forensic categories:

- 1) Forensic anthropology casework

- 2) Court testimony, depositions
- 3) Consultative appointments
- 4) Research in forensic sciences and related fields including, but not limited to: forensic anthropology, osteology, location and recovery of remains, statistical analysis in forensic anthropology, etc.
- 5) Publications in forensic sciences and related fields including, but not limited to: forensic anthropology, osteology, location and recovery of remains, statistical analysis in forensic anthropology, etc.
- 6) Teaching, lectures, presentations
- 7) Forensic-related appointments, activities, offices held, and meetings

Categories of Continuing Education (CE):

- 1) CE hours should all relate closely to forensic anthropology.
- 2) CE hours for activities not listed in the table below must be approved by the Recertification Committee prior to the submission of the recertification application. The number of eligible CE hours will be determined by the Recertification Committee based on their discretion.
- 3) CE hours will be self-tracked through the three year period and be reported to the Recertification Committee by June 1 prior to the anniversary date of the Certificate of Qualification (as outlined above).

AAFS Meeting
Attendance	Actual hours attending papers
Workshop	Actual hours or CE Credit

Independent Research Relevant to Forensics	1 hour/day expended
Forensic Lecture Attendance (Non-meeting)	0.5 hours per lecture
Other	As approved

Format for Recertification Documentation:

- 1) The Application for Recertification must be used when documenting forensic activities.
- 2) Failure to use the above referenced format or comply with the instructions will result in a notification to the Diplomate that corrections are needed and may result in delay in recertification.
- 3) It is the responsibility of the Diplomate to submit the completed Application for Recertification to the Recertification Committee for review.

Failure to Comply and Decertification:

- 1) If the Diplomate fails to submit the Application for Recertification by June 1 prior to the three-year anniversary date of his/her initial certification or previous recertification, the Recertification Committee of the ABFA will notify the Diplomate of noncompliance in accordance with the procedures outlined above.
- 2) After notification, additional failure to submit the Application for Recertification within thirty (30) days will result in automatic lapse of the Certificate. The Recertification Committee, at its discretion, may grant an extension based on extenuating circumstances.
- 3) Failure to submit annual dues by February 1 of each year will result in notification from the Treasurer of the Board of impending decertification. Failure to submit annual dues within thirty (30) days of notification will result in automatic lapse of the certificate.
- 4) Failure to submit the signed Endorsement of Professional and Ethical Standards by February 1 of each year will result in notification from the President of the Board of impending decertification. Failure to submit the ethics statement within thirty (30) days of notification will result in automatic lapse of the certificate.
- 5) Upon automatic lapse of the Certificate, a reinstatement fee equal to the current application fee will be charged if reinstatement is granted. All dues and required forms must be submitted with the reinstatement fee. Until the Recertification Committee reinstates the Diplomate, the Certificate of Qualification will be deemed invalid.

Retirement:

- 1) Diplomates who have held Certificates of Qualification from the ABFA for at least ten years and who are Diplomates in good standing may request retirement status.
- 2) This written request must be sent to the Secretary and/or the President of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may vote on such requests at any time during the year. If, by majority vote, the Board grants retirement status, the Retiree may:
 - (a) Cease payment of dues;
 - (b) Cease recertification procedures;
 - (c) Use the designation "D-ABFA (retired);"
 - (d) Continue to attend Diplomate meetings.

The Retiree may not:

- (a) Sit on the Board of Directors;
- (b) Vote on any matter before the Board or Diplomate members;
- (c) State that he or she is currently Board Certified or that he or she currently holds a Certificate of Qualification from the ABFA.

Further:

- (a) Retirement status cannot be applied retroactively (i.e., granted for some previous date);
- (b) Retirement is irrevocable except by a subsequent finding by the Board of Directors that the Diplomate was not in good standing at the time of retirement;
- (c) If an action taken or not taken by the Diplomate prior to retirement is adjudicated after retirement and exposes ethical violations or other violations of Codes of Conduct, retirement status may be revoked and, at the discretion of the Board, the Diplomate may be decertified.
