

ABFA Analyst Application Reference Form

This portion to be filled out by App	licant:
Name of Applicant:
<ul> <li>□ I waive my right to view this recommendation.</li> <li>□ I do not waive my right to view this recommendation.</li> </ul>
Applicant Signature			Date:
This portion to be filled out by Referee:
Referee Information: Name: Title: Affiliation: E-mail Address:
Are you D-ABFA Certified? Yes Relationship to Applicant:	No
Length of time you have known the applicant:  Indicate your familiarity with the following with regard to the applicant:
indicate your familiarity with the folic	Very Unfamiliar	Unfamiliar	Somewhat familiar	Familiar	Very familiar
Education
Forensic casework/training
Character
Based on current skill level and proshould be certified as an ABFA Ana to be competent in can be found at: we Yes No If no, please explain:	alyst? A list of www.theabfa.org	knowledge, sk	-

ABFA Analyst Application Reference Form

Please indicate a rating for the Applicant's performance on the items listed below based on your interactions with the applicant. If you were not in a position to observe these skills or do not feel you have the appropriate background to rate these skills, please mark "N/A." The ABFA appreciates honest responses and recognizes that Applicants may not have significant experience or training in all areas, particularly at the Analyst level.

This information will be part of a holistic review of the Applicant's materials to determine whether they are prepared to sit for the Analyst exam with appropriate professional and ethical qualities. For more information on the Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities expected at the Analyst level, please see www.theabfa.org/resources. These reference forms will only be used in the application review process, and will be kept confidential unless the applicant chose not to waive their right to see it.

Assess the Applicant's ability to:		Very poor	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Respectfully handle evidence and human remains
Demonstrate overall competency in a forensic anthropology laboratory
Produce and maintain comprehensive, timely, legible, and professional notes, communications, and/or reports
Communicate effectively with colleagues, other professionals, and/or law enforcement agencies
Identify strengths, deficiencies, and limitations in one's knowledge and expertise
Incorporate feedback into daily practice
Work with others to establish and maintain a climate of mutual respect, dignity, diversity, ethical integrity, and trust
Demonstrate sensitivity to diverse populations, including but not limited to diversity in gender, age, culture, race, religion, disabilities, and sexual orientation
Demonstrate a commitment to ethical principles pertaining to confidentiality, informed consent, and research and professional practices, including compliance with relevant policies and regulations

ABFA Analyst Application Reference Form

To the best of your knowledge, has the applicant ever been formally censured by a university, employer, or professional organization for unethical conduct?
☐ Yes (please explain below) No
Describe your familiarity with the applicant's overall involvement in the discipline of forensic anthropology:
Additional Comments: If needed, please use the space below to provide any additional comments or concerns you would like to share with the ABFA Applications Committee and Board of Directors regarding the Applicant's experience, character, and/or future as it pertains to practicing forensic anthropology. Note that a full/separate reference letter is not required as part of this Application. Please keep any comments brief.
To the best of my knowledge, the statements contained herein are true and accurate.
Referee Signature Date
When completed, Referee should e-mail this form directly to the ABFA Applications Chair(s). Current contact information can be found here: www.theabfa.org/board-of-directors